Christmas Eve

Arrive from midday to a warm welcome with spiced mulled wine and home-baked festive treats. Our award-winning spa is open throughout your stay – whether you crave relaxation in the thermal suite, enjoy a dip with a view in the infinity pool, or a refreshing wild swim in our pool or lake. Perfectly followed by a rejuvenating treatment to truly unwind.

For a dash of fun, our family games room invites children and adults alike to enjoy a delightful selection of games, perfect for festive bonding.

As evening falls, enjoy a sparkling drinks reception accompanied by the enchanting sounds of a local choir filling the air with Christmas cheer.

When it's time to dine, indulge in a welcome dinner at the elegant Camellia restaurant or the Mediterranean-inspired Botanica. For a truly special experience, upgrade to Michelin-starred The Pass for an exquisite tasting menu, paired with wines selected by our Sommelier.

If midnight services are part of your tradition, we'll happily recommend nearby services and assist with transport arrangements. Upon your return, we'll have warming hot toddies and mince pies waiting – just the thing before you tiptoe off to bed with visions of Christmas morning delight.

Christmas Day

Start your day with a hearty full English breakfast in Camellia restaurant, or opt for a more leisurely brunch in Botanica, perfect for those embracing a relaxed Christmas morning.

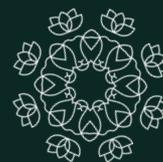

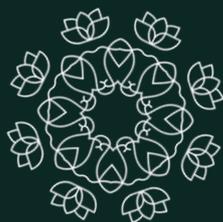

Head to the spa, open for a morning workouts or some much-needed festive relaxation. Whether it's working up a sweat in the sauna, or simply soaking up the peace, it's the perfect way to prepare for the day ahead. Children can enjoy swimming during designated splash times.

For lunch, the celebrations truly begin. Three-night guests can savour a traditional Christmas lunch with all the trimmings in Camellia, set to the enchanting melodies of a live pianist. Two-night guests will enjoy a sumptuous carvery with all the festive favourites in the South Downs suite, accompanied by a delightful roving trio. A glass of bubbly starts the occasion, with expertly selected wines throughout your meal.

The afternoon is yours for rest and relaxation, perhaps a stroll through our 93 acres, a screening in our in-house cinema, or a cosy nap after the King's Speech, or some time with a good book.

As evening falls, gather for a relaxed spread featuring cold cuts, comforting soups, and delicious treats, paired with a specially selected wine. Board games invite friendly competition, while our interactive quiz offers a fun challenge for those keen to test their knowledge.

Boxing Day

Start your Boxing Day with a hearty full English breakfast or opt for a relaxed brunch, served until late morning. If you are departing today, we kindly ask you to check out of your room by 11am, but you're welcome to extend your stay and enjoy the spa until 2pm.

For those staying another night, enjoy the fresh air with some country pursuits, take a ride on our hotel bicycles, or go for a leisurely walk around the grounds. You can also relax in the family area with a cup of hot chocolate or visit our family cinema room to catch a movie.

Indulge in the spa's inviting experiences – take a dip in the pool, soak in the outdoor hydrotherapy pool, or take a bracing cold water swim in the outdoor wild swimming pool. You can also treat yourself to a rejuvenating treatment, again, be sure to let us know so we can book your place.

Join us for a traditional carvery lunch, then head over to our talented bar team who will help you create your very own cocktail – just let us know if you'd like to join in! Later, our Sommelier will guide you through a wine-tasting experience, again, make sure to reserve your spot.

For dinner, Botanica offers a relaxed Mediterranean-style meal, featuring small plates, sharing dishes, and main courses, all set to the soundtrack of live music.

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast before checking out by 11am. Make the most of your final hours with a dip in the pool, a steam session, or spa treatment, with spa access available until 2pm.

As your stay draws to a close, head home feeling rested, recharged, and ready to switch off from the everyday at South Lodge again soon.
